

Electric Choice in Illinois

As a result of electrical deregulation, residential and small business customers have the ability to choose who provides the supply portion of their electric service. A number of firms are currently certified and registered with the Illinois Commerce Commission to compete with Commonwealth Edison to supply power.

Resource information may be found at the following web link:

<http://www.pluginillinois.org/>